

Description/Objectives for AWS2 017 AWI Standards Use and Development

Learn what new advances have been made in Custom Architectural Woodwork Standards Development. Understand the measurable qualities and properties of custom woodwork grades while recognizing the importance of specification essentials that protect the integrity of the design intent and the owner's best interests.

This course offers 1 hour of HSW credit for AIA.

- 1) To be able to identify reasons for using AWI Standards in architectural and design projects.
- 2) Learn the history and status of the current standards.
- 3) Recognize differences in Standards values and attributes
- 4) Understand how the new AWI ANSI Woodwork Standards are improved
- 5) Present an introduction to the new AWI Education Portal